ROOSEVELT PRAISED AS NATIONAL SAVED LEADERS OF COLORADO

with you to the last point in condemning the man who in the public press writes an untruthful and demanding equal condemnation of the legislator who acts crookedly. I speak of the men who write in the public press and the magazine, I speak of the politician who writes the untruthful and dishonest man who, I think, is a little more contemptible than the dishonest public official who I know them well, and who exposes corruption, I ask you to stand against the official who is dishonest, and his equally base brother of the press who falsely accuses honest men of dishonesty.

Our Duty to the World. "I have just come back from a very interesting trip to the old world. I can with sincerity say that with all our faults and with all our shortcomings, our country is the best there isn't any other spot on the face of the earth where life is so supremely worth living.

"Two things struck me while I was abroad. The first was the average man whose life was hard. America stood as the name which symbolized hope. The second thing was that almost every man when I met on the other side and talked with me, would not only talk anxiously about some feature of business or political corruption in America. Every reactionary, every opponent of free institutions, hatched with carmine and in a sense of the corruption and proof that our plan for a democratic government was an empty dream.

"We should realize that we are not only the custodians of the prosperity of our own country, but of the whole world. Shame, triple shame, be ours if we spoil the world's dream of the possibility of a popular government on a continental scale. I ask you, men and women of Colorado, to go back to your homes with the sole purpose to fight for honesty, in both business and politics, not only for our own sakes, and for the sakes of our children who ought to inherit the land, but for the sake of the people from the world, who stand and watch the experiment which we are making in the republic of the west, so that their hopes shall not be dimmed."

MONUMENT TO JOHN BROWN IS PROPOSED Park to Be Dedicated on Wednesday by Col. Roosevelt.

Oswatimie, Kas., Aug. 30.—Not since the time 34 years ago when John Brown and his followers, to give their names to the park, were in the woods at the edge of town has Oswatimie been so excited.

Today the celebration of that anniversary and the dedication of the park are expected to be crowded into the little town tomorrow when Theodore Roosevelt will make an address, which will dedicate to the state as a park the woods on the hillside where the battle was fought.

An enthusiastic movement to place a statue of the famous western abolitionist in the hall of fame in Washington was started this morning.

CAMPING FOR LAROLLETTE. Milwaukee, Wis., Aug. 30.—Senator Jonathan P. Dolliver, of Iowa, began here last night a series of speeches in Wisconsin in the interest of senator LaFollette. The Iowa senator said that the first among Republican political leaders to comprehend the character of irrepressible conflict within the party was the public interest and the present day organizations on private business, was Robert M. LaFollette, of Wisconsin.
